Buffalo, N. Y., July 9.—The motion to vacate the injunction obtained against Hal Chase by the Chicago American league baseball club, restraining him from playing with the Buffalo Federal league club, was argued before Supreme Court Justice Herbert P. Bissell here today.

Kenneth R. Addington of Chicago, personal counsel for Chase, characterized the national agreement as a combination in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, in that it constitutes a traffic in players.

"Organized baseball does not come into court with clean hands," he said.

President James A. Gilmore of the Federal league attended the hearing.

Chase was not in court.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 2901 Tehipitoula St., New Orleans, La.

My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."—Miss ESTELLE MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.
